

Religion

Private/Personal sphere

Do you consider yourself a religious person? Do you talk about religion?

Do you practice your religion? Does your family?

Do you talk about religion with your friends? With people you meet?

Is it ok for you if people talk about their faith?

How much knowledge do you have about other faiths?

Public sphere

What place do you think the institution of Religion takes in your culture?

When and where is religion mentioned in the public sphere?

Is it important for politicians to display their faith in the USA?

How do you think it is different in your future host country? Is there regional differences?
