

Smith College Conference Center

Room Capacities

The Paradise Room

112 seated, 160 theater-style, 200 standing

With floor-to-ceiling windows all along the western side with a spectacular view of Paradise Pond and the surrounding vista, this room is ideal for any meeting and offers the versatility to accommodate a variety of set-ups. The room can be used for a reception with food stations or a sit-down dinner. The sound system accommodates speakers, performance, and presentations. Sound from the Paradise Pond can also be made available on the Terrace, in the Directors Room or downstairs.

The Oak Room

64 seated, 80 theater-style, 100 standing

This room is fully equipped with audio/visual equipment and is ideal for presentations, either with or without a meal. It offers stunning views of the foliage and sunsets.

The Lounge

25 with some casual seating

This room is furnished with comfortable living room furniture and is the perfect spot for a casual meeting or gathering.

The Oak Room & Lounge

125 guests standing

These two rooms are easily combined to create one large space that is perfect for receptions, presentations and meeting.

The Terrace and Atrium

100 guests standing

Attached to the Paradise Room, the Terrace overlooks Paradise Pond and Smith's athletic fields. A perfect space for lunches or parties, the Terrace has one of the best views in the area.

The Directors Room

20 guests seated

This small, beautiful dining room overlooking Paradise Pond is perfect for intimate meals, gatherings or focus groups for up to 20 guests around one large table.

Meeting Rooms B & C

6-20 seated

These rooms are classically decorated and are perfect for social hours, break-out sessions, dinners and meetings. Rented separately or together, these rooms offer privacy for any type of event.